6th International Symposium 2019

Mrs. SAC. Feroziya

University of Peradeniya

Dr. KM. Mubarak

South Eastern University of Sri Lank

MESSAGE FROM THE VICE CHANCELLOR

It is with great pleasure that I write this message on the occasion of the 6th International Symposium 2019 of the Faculty of Islamic Studies & Arabic Language of South Eastern University of Sri Lanka. The International Symposium is one of the major events of the Faculty and has been organized successively for the sixth time and in 2019, it is held with the theme “Contemporary Trends of Islamic Sciences and Arabic Studies for the Nation Development”.

South Eastern University of Sri Lanka continues to develop and uphold a strong and a well-established research culture through the five annual conferences held with different but timely themes. The South Eastern University of Sri Lanka promotes new research, creates new knowledge, and disseminates the knowledge through different platforms out of which this annual research symposium also plays an important role. South Eastern University of Sri Lanka also promotes and encourages national and international researchers to benefit from these research symposia in sharing their valuable research findings among well attended researchers from different regions and countries.

This conference focuses mainly on research themes related to Islamic sciences and Arabic Studies and brings together the researchers, academicians, professionals and students who are involved directly or indirectly with the discipline from all over the world to interact among themselves while presenting their research findings. A substantial number of researchers, both from overseas and local, are participating in the 6th International Symposium 2019 of the Faculty. This is not only allowing exchange and sharing of information and new knowledge, but also is paving the way forward to build international collaborations which is essential in the development of Sri Lanka.

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate the chair, co-chair and the organizing committee of the 6th International symposium 2019 for their tireless effort and commitment in organizing the event successfully. I also wish to thank all others who have contributed to make the symposium a reality. Finally, I wish the 6th International Symposium of the Faculty of Islamic Studies & Arabic Language of the South Eastern University of Sri Lanka a great success.

Prof. MMM. Najim
Vice Chancellor
South Eastern University of Sri Lanka

Bismillahir Rahmanir Raheem

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

As the Dean of the Faculty of Islamic Studies and Arabic Language, I feel honored to write this felicitation message to the 6th International Symposium – 2019 organized by the Faculty of Islamic Studies and Arabic Language of South Eastern University of Sri Lanka. The theme of the conference is “Contemporary Trends of Islamic Sciences and Arabic Studies for the Nation Development”.

Research discovers, elucidates and evaluates new knowledge, ideas, and the technologies essential in driving the future of society and humanity. When practitioners engage in research, with its deliberate process and requirements for critical thinking skills, they become better prepared for the challenges and opportunities of the future. I earnestly hope that the effort of conducting a series of international conference will definitely bring the highest honor and dignity to the Faculty and to the University in the global arena. This conference will significantly contribute to the elevation of academic excellence of our country in the decade to come.

I am happy to state that more than 50 papers have been received from local and international researchers from different disciplines. This shows the commitment of the Faculty of Islamic Studies and Arabic Language in maintaining, encouraging and improving its standard in academic activities and research.

I would like to congratulate all the scholars, researchers and presenters for their participation in the symposium, which will eventually bring credit to our University.

Finally, I wish to express my gratitude to the Chief Guest, Prof. M.M.M Najim, Vice Chancellor of SEUSL, Key-note Speaker, Dr. Ibrahim Zakariyya Moosa of Islamic University of Maldives, Chair persons, distinguished guests, scholars, presenters, the organizing committee, University administrative staff, the Faculty staff and the students for their fullest assistance and enormous co-operation to make this historic event a success. I also wish to extend my thanks to all who supported directly and indirectly during the different stages to make this symposium a successful event.

Thank you

Dr. SMM Mazahir
Dean/Faculty of Islamic Studies and Arabic Language
South Eastern University of Sri Lanka, Oluvil

MESSAGE FROM THE COORDINATOR

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

On behalf of the organizing committee, it is with great pleasure; I convey this message to the proceedings of the 6th International Symposium held on 12th December 2019 organized by the Faculty of Islamic Studies and Arabic Language, South Eastern University of Sri Lanka.

The annual international symposium of the faculty focuses on dissemination of research problems, solutions and insights on new challenges faced in the Islamic and Arabic fields. The 6th International Symposium Steering committee has identified "Contemporary Trends of Islamic Sciences and Arabic Studies to the Nation Development" as the main theme of the symposium in order to enhance research and discussion on Contemporary needs of Arabic and Islamic Studies toward nation development along with other fields in Humanities and Social Sciences.

The event will be elated by a keynote speech by Dr. Ibrahim Zakariyya Moosa of Islamic University of Maldives followed by 10 parallel technical tracks consisting of 55 oral presentations under six sub-themes such as Arabic Language and Literature, Linguistic and translation, Islamic Thought and Civilization, Islamic Banking and Finance, Islamic Law and Humanities and Social Sciences.

I would like to take this opportunity to convey my profound gratitude to Prof. MMM.Najim, Vice Chancellor of South Eastern University and Dr. SMM.Mazahir, Dean of Faculty of Islamic studies and Arabic language for their guidance and fullest support in organizing this important event. I also express my sincere thanks to the keynote speaker, Dr. Ibrahim Zakariyya Moosa of Islamic University of Maldives for accepting our invitation to deliver the keynote speech and for having traveled from Maldives at his own expenses. I would like to extend my sincere thanks to all authors and presenters at the 6th IntsymFIA who are the major contributors to this event. Further, I extend deep gratitude to the members of the editorial committee, members of different sub-committees who have done a wonderful job in organizing this symposium. I acknowledge all the reviewers, chairpersons and all the panelists for their valuable comments and views on current research topics. I am also grateful to Mr.M.T. Habeebullah, Mr.ACM. Nafrees and Mr. MIM Irfan for their dedication and Commitment as the Secretary, Asst Secretary and Treasurer of the Symposium. My heartfelt appreciation also goes to all the members of the academic staff, the administrative staff and the non academic staff of the faculty. Last but not least, I thank all who have contributed to the success of this symposium.

Finally, I wish a successful symposium.
